

LUKAS PFEIL

SAXOPHONIST
& COMPOSER

Lukas Pfeil Quartet "LP4"

With his quartet "LP4", New York-based tenor saxophonist Lukas Pfeil presents his original compositions as well as the music of his idols, such as Tom Harrell, Chick Corea, Walt Weiskopf and others.

The band's music sounds modern, yet firmly rooted in the tradition. The group explores the classic sound of the acoustic jazz quartet with great attention to detail. The intelligently crafted arrangements allow for all facets of that sound to surface, and form an ideal platform for the creative and tasteful improvisation of the musicians.

German-born frontman Lukas Pfeil plays with a soft, charming tone and a very mature sense of musicality, creating lines that flow effortlessly through the changes. Sebastian Scobel, Stefan Rey and Dominik Mahnig are both excellent accompanists and accomplished soloists in their own right. This rhythm section never lacks in groove or energy, even on quiet tunes or more fragile passages.

With their subtle communication and great awareness for the collective sound, the musicians of "LP4" create a very elegant jazz sound that captivates audiences with the very first note.
